

I thought Republicans believed in competition. That is what makes products and services better. Bullying the competition because you have money, power and control of the airwaves is hardly the American way. The NAB should be ashamed of themselves and Congress should NOT carry their water for them.